

Pathways For Life Academy

Preparing for independence in life and learning

Private Middle and High School in Winter Garden, FL

Our small class sizes are ideal to help your child achieve their goals by promoting structure, organization, and management skills through a therapy-based learning approach.

Our teacher/therapists teach to the abilities of the individual learner and help to meet their unique needs.

Our customized, therapy-driven program with an emphasis on real life application offers an environment where your child can succeed with confidence, independence, and self-advocacy to help propel them forward in their path through life.

- Small group, therapy-driven instruction
- Real life application to learning
- Weekly cooking of a group meal
- Community service opportunities

- Life Skills Training
- Social Skills Training
- Executive Functioning Classes
- Fitness/Health Experiences